The Parmor is an earnest, active and indefatigable apporter of the Constitutional Union cause, and in the present canvass for the Presidency will use every honorable effort to promote the election of BELL and EVER-ETT. To enable us to labor with increased efficiency we ask our party friends to aid us in extending its circulation.

By the purchase of the printing establishment of the Neses, and recent additions of new materials from the foundries, the Jos Office of the Parsior has been made the largest and most complete in the South-West. It is also supplied with the most competent workmen. Steam has been applied to our presses, which are of the best kinds. We are prepared to print, in the highest style of the art, plain, in colors, or bronze, HANDBILLS.

PROGRAMMES, SHOW CARDS, BILL HEADS. RAILROAD WORK. DRAY TICKETS.

That Suburban Residence, situated on the Franklin Turnpike, within half a mi of the city, and opposite the residence of the late Jo-seph W. Horton. This is, perhaps, the most command-ing site in the vicinity of Nashville, and is a most de-sireable country residence. The house will be sold

That Valuable Farm, known as the Sims Tract, situated on the Smith Turn pike, (old Lebanon road) within three miles of Nash-ville, containing 330 acres. The soil is good, it is well watered and timbered, and can be divided into small tracts of twenty acres and upwards, all of which ar admirably adapted for country residences, market gar-dens and dairy farms. Also, that Beautiful Farm, on the same road, now occupied by T. C. McCampbell, and formerly owned by Tom Harding, containing about 250 acres. This place is so well known as to need no further description. It will also be divided to suit purchasers. T. C. McCampbell will show these places to any one who will call.

All the above property will be sold on reasonable terms, and on a credit of one, two, three and four Apply to A. V. S. Lindsley, Nashville, or to either of the undersigned. THOS. C. McCAMPBELL, thereby securing faithful portraits and furnishing an unique and exquisite style of ornamentation of articles in domestic use.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the Fine Arts desirous of having Portraits on Porcelain, the Company have imported from Europe a collection of superior porcelain goods, manufactured to their own order, which they sell at cost prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right, and consequently the only persons authorized to use the process, they have determined, in order to afford People in every section of the Union an opportunity to possess Portraits on China, to make the following proposition to residents in the country, who are unable to visit personally the Atelier and Galieries in New York: Persons sending a photograph, ambrotype, or daguerreotype to the office of the Company in New York, accompanied by five bothass, will receive in return by express, free of other charge, a richly ornamented Breakfast Cup and Saucer, with the portrait transferred thereon.

By transmitting a daguerreotype and responded by the patented process.

By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and remains they will secure in like manner, a handsome French Vase or Toilet Article, with the portrait reproduced by the patented process.

By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and remains they will receive in return a pair of rich Sevres Vases, with the portraits executed equal to minature paintings; and, in like manner, portraits can be reproduced on porcelain wares or Vases of every quality of finish, ranging in price from Twenty to One Hundred dollars the pair.
